PROSE Syllabus

These classes are intended to take place on Saturday 14th March 2026 at the Royal Grammar School, Worcester.

All large groups are free of charge and 25% 'early bird' discount is available for solos and duologues until 1st December 2025. We do not believe any performer should miss out due to financial hardship. Please contact us to discuss any free places and bursaries that may be available: admin:wcaf.org.uk

Non-competitive prose reading

Unless otherwise stated, classes are competitive and places will be awarded. Times, dates and venues for all classes are subject to confirmation once all entries have been received. The committee reserve the right to combine and/or separate classes by age or size of group, dependent upon the number of entries received.

Solo performers may enter only one class appropriate for their age on 1st September 2025 and the open class in each section. A different piece must be performed for each entry.

Prose passages must be READ, not recited from memory. Full details of piece(s) to be performed do not have to be included at the time of entry (simply put TBC) but please ensure entries are updated with the title and author by 16th January 2026, at the latest. Performers must provide a written copy of their poem or extract for the adjudicator. Performers must provide a brief introduction at the beginning of their performance. This is included in the time limit. No props or costumes are allowed.

The Festival has an agreement with the Authors' Licensing and Collecting Society. This means that entrants do not have to seek copyright permission for any poetry, prose or SOLO dramatic item.

Unacceptable Language Thresholds: Some works performed explore adult themes and/or contain strong language. However, care should be taken when choosing or devising contemporary pieces. We ask that you present your work in a manner that respects the 'family' orientated nature of WCAF and avoids the unnecessary exposure of younger children to inappropriate themes and language. WCAF aims to celebrate the best and highest forms of literature and language, and therefore reserves the right to refuse entries that are made up of continuously bad language and/or gratuitous expletives. Therefore, all entrants to the speech, drama and musical theatre sections are now asked to confirm whether their performance contains adult language or content upon entry. If you indicate you have potentially contentious language or themes, we will be in contact to discuss. This does not necessarily mean you will not be able to perform the piece - we just want to make sure that we make appropriate arrangements for you to be able to perform to your best.

Prepared Prose Reading

Performers may choose to prepare and read any continuous extract within the time limit from either the suggested texts or from their favourite book. Each of the suggested texts is by a local author and is stocked by Script Haven.

Please consider whether the passage chosen is suitable for a mixed audience and highlight any potentially contentious themes or language.
