Chairman's Welcome to the 2024 Festival

Chairman's Welcome to the 2024 Festival

As the Chairman of the team I welcome you all to participate in this year's syllabus. There have been many changes on the committee this year as we lost two members who had been with us for many years as our secretary and timetabler. As they have now re-located to the New Forest, we have a new team of volunteers to help make the festival the best we can. This has also meant we have looked at our timings for opening and closing the entries to try and minimise the drop-out rate which can cause problems on the day. We are also at a new venue, Simon Langton Girls' Grammar, Canterbury, who are very keen to host and help to build the festival and welcome new performers and their families. We are grateful to the Head Teacher for welcoming us and for hosting the event and hope this relationship will continue for many years. The excellent facilities of the recently built school and the enthusiasm of the staff will make us all feel comfortable and give a wide variety of performance spaces to enjoy.

We are pleased to say that entry fees have remained the same this year and the classes on offer, solo, duologue and groups, also remain the same. It was lovely to be able to welcome new students and teachers from across Kent and hope to increase entries this year.

We are, again, using the Play and Perform online entry system and I would like to remind you to have all the details necessary for your entries as it is very difficult to make changes once entries are being processed for programming. Please note the deadline for entries is 1st March 2024. Payment is also due by that date. If you are paying by BACS, please use the KT reference number given to you by the entry system when paying as this helps to identify who has paid especially if person paying has a different surname to the performer. Please write the KT reference number on the back of cheques if you are paying in this way.

Please check our guidelines for teachers/parents to give more information on what is expected for each skill and how to make sure the performances are suitable and on target. Please take time to read and understand these guidelines carefully as it will help in your planning.

Finally, my thanks to many people, including our volunteers who make this festival happen and I would be keen to encourage more volunteers to help make the day run smoothly. Please contact me if you know anyone who would like to help.

I look forward to seeing you at the 2024 Festival and helping to build this event for the future.

Andrea Dengate

PATRONS 2024

Patrons assist all sections of the Kent Competitive Festival in many ways including stewarding, marshalling, offering hospitality to adjudicators and by providing essential financial support. Without a large number of patrons the festival would be unable to operate. The committee would like to express gratitude to the following patrons:-

Honorary Patron: The Lord Mayor of Canterbury

Patrons and supporters:

Mrs. E. Appleyard Canterbury Arts Council
Mrs. S. Fever, Mrs P. Inscoe
Miss. B. Porrer, Mrs. P Shephard M.B.E. D.L.
Ms. G. Rumley, Drs. A. and A. Staehler
Mrs H Pantony, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilkinson
Mrs M Dixon

If you would like to offer your help as a Patron of the festival, please contact the chairman for further information.

General Rules and Regulations

1 Age (if under 19) as on the day of competition.

- 2 An online programme will be sent to competitors making individual entries but only one online programme will be sent to a teacher entering a more than one competitor.
- 3 A stamped addressed envelope must be enclosed with all letters requiring an answer
- 4 In duologue classes the age is defined by that of the elder competitor. Any competitor may enter only once in each class.
- 5 Time limits. Please check that competitor's performance time does not exceed the time limit set for each class. Failure to comply may lead to disqualification.
- 6 In all 'own choice' classes (including Drama) adjudicators' copies must be provided either by email to the festival secretary at least two weeks before the festival or at the venue before the class starts. It must clearly marked with the competitor's name and class number, otherwise the competitor is liable to disqualification. Please note that it is illegal to photocopy or copy by any other means, works which are copyright, without the permission of the copyright holder. The Festival and/or adjudicator may refuse copied items where the competitor cannot produce proof of permission to copy. It should be noted that handwritten copies are allowed.
- 7 The Kent Festival has entered into an agreement with the Authors' Licensing and Collecting Society. This means that entrants DO NOT have to seek copyright permission for any poetry, prose or solo dramatic items performed, to a time limit of 10 minutes. Performers and teachers will be pleased to know that their participation in this festival means that authors will be directly reimbursed as a consequence of their works being performed here. DUOLOGUES and GROUP DRAMATIC ACTIVITY are NOT COVERED by this agreement, and copyright for these items should be sought by performers at the time of entry. Evidence of copyright clearance may be requested by the adjudicator.
- 8 The adjudicator's decision will be regarded as final. Awards may be withheld if in the opinion of the adjudicator insufficient merit is shown.
- 9 The committee reserves the right to engage additional adjudicators, or to substitute without notice for any adjudicator unable to appear.
- 10 Certificates will be issued for FIRST and SECOND places in each class. A THIRD place certificate may be issued in classes where 8 or more competitors are present.
- 11 Mark sheets will be available at the end of each class. If not collected they can be found at the Front Desk at the end of the Festival.
- 12 No poem may be entered by an individual in more than one class although it may be included in a group class (when offered in the syllabus) in which the individual takes part.
- 13 Verse Speaking and Drama classes require the competitor to perform from memory and not with the aid of a script.
- 14 Prose reading classes require the competitor to deliver their reading from a script or book. This performance should be an extract from the set book and the choice of extract is the responsibility of the performer. An introduction should be spoken from memory. Competitors who learn their reading by heart will be penalised or even disqualified.

15 All trophies being awarded at the Festival will be presented on the day of the Festival and may be held until 20th March 2025. Unfortunately if there is no one over 18 years available to sign a receipt for a trophy it cannot be taken from the Festival. Engraving may be carried out at the winner's expense and should be done promptly to facilitate easy return when asked.

16 The Festival cannot allow flash photography, phone, tape or video recordings, all of which are absolutely forbidden during performances or adjudication.

17 While every effort will be made to adhere to the times stated, the organisers reserve the right to adjust the starting times of classes where necessary. The committee reserves the right to limit, cancel, amalgamate or subdivide any class. Where there is only one entrant in a class, that entrant will be informed and given the opportunity to withdraw and have his fee returned or to perform against the standard set for first place in that class. Should the entrant choose to perform, the adjudicator will decide whether a first place should be awarded.

18 Individuals may enter up to 6 classes INCLUDING duologues and group classes. Class sizes may be capped at 15 entrants. In this situation, entry fees will be refunded for entrants above this limit.

19 Entry money is not refundable unless the class is cancelled. Entry fees are:

Key Stages 1&2 Years R - 6: £6.50

Key Stages 3-5 Years 7 - 13: £7.00

Classes for over 18: £7.00

Open classes: £7.00

Duologue: £11.00 per pair

Group classes: £15 per group

27 This festival will be held according to the prevailing government guidelines on coronavirus at the time and may be cancelled at short notice and entry fees refunded if no alternative way of holding the festival can be held.

20 FIRST AID facilities are available in the Festival office to which any lost property should be taken.

21 Adjudication will be given according to the category system recommended by the British Federation of Festivals. The categories are:-

FAIR

22 Competition rooms will be open ½ hour before the first class.

23 The Festival Committee will not accept any liability or responsibility for any loss or damage suffered by any competitor or person or to his/her effects or possessions arising out of his/her participation or attendance at the Festival.

24 The decision of the committee in all matters arising out of, or not specifically covered in these rules and regulations, is final.

25 General Festival enquiries should be addressed to: dengate31@gmail.com

26 Entries must be submitted on the official entry form online by the entry closing date of 01/03/2024. Payment for entries must be made to the festival Treasurer by 01/03/2024.

Payment by BACS should include the KT reference number given on entry through the Play and Perform system. The KT reference number should be written on the back of cheques if using this method of payment.

Guidelines for Parents and Teachers

Verse Speaking

The choice of poem should be suitable for the age group and challenging for the individual. Even at an early age correct stance should be encouraged, well-balanced with the feet slightly apart. Competitors should be audible without strain and control pace, pitch and use of pause as well as keep eyes level and take great care with their diction.

It is important to remember when performing a verse selection that the performer must bring it to life. This will be reflected in their use of facial expression and may include some movement, if appropriate to the text.

Please note that movement should never detract from the text and should always be dictated by the words the reader is speaking. Too much movement in a performance of verse selection could detract from the meaning of the words.

Verse must be performed from memory.

Choral Speaking

A leader should announce the piece. Choir members should always present thoughtfully and dress neatly with consideration for the audience. Hair must be out of the eyes. Hands at the sides and no fidgeting: not still but in a state of relaxed preparation, watching the conductor, and being a good member of the team. The choir should be arranged by height so that all can be seen blocks for standing on can be used but should be taken with the choir, as you do not know what will be available. The performance should be spoken from memory.

Prose Reading

An extract, within the time limit, from the set book should be chosen for the reading. It should be able to stand alone without the audience having to have read the whole book. The reader should be able to show there is a climax at some point in the reading, not necessarily at the end and the starting rate must be SLOW and controlled. The creation of mood and atmosphere is important and, if dialogue is used, the different characters should be clear to the listener. The book should be held with one hand underneath the spine and the other resting lightly on the page and such that the audience may be easily in focus able to share the content. Competitors should be encouraged to read the books from which the excerpt is taken. An introduction to the extract should be devised to set the scene for the audience and should be spoken from memory.

Sight Reading

Perfomers should be encouraged to look for the climax of the piece they have been given. The adjudicators choose the reading and take great care in selecting material that will include description, narrative and a climax which should all be observed. Remember sight reading is not a memory test, the adjudicators are not looking for you to be word perfect, but look at both understanding and being able to communicate it to the audience. These suggestions should be borne in mind as each sight-reading piece will be different for each competitor. They will all be from the same book but running in continuous segments to allow more enjoyment for all during the class and audience.

Monologues and Duologues

Texts need to be chosen carefully for content making sure what you choose is effective on its own and is age appropriate ie: Lady Macbeth aged 12 is not a good idea. Please bear in mind that the language and themes used in the piece should be appropriate for a family audience but should still challenge the performers to explore character, atmosphere, emotion and moods. The whole acting area should be used for movement if applicable. Full costume is not permitted, but long Practice Skirts which help indicate/suggest period may be worn. Clothing and Footwear should be comfortable, allowing freedom of movement, and suitable for the work presented. Some hand props are allowed but the scene should not take time to set up. Pieces should be performed from memory.

Group Drama

The same advice as monologues & duologues applies. Original works can be used.

Group Recital

The group should present short pieces of work using at least 4 of the following disciplines: scripted drama, improvisation, verse, prose, religious texts, choral speaking and mime. The elements should be linked using either narrative or music (either instrumental or vocal) or a combination.

Mime

Mime scenes should aim to tell a story with a clear structure to fit the set title and to create a sense of reality. Performers should show skills in physical awareness, control, precision and coordination. Suitable, loose clothing should be worn to allow movement and for the audience to be able to clearly see. Appropriate footwear should be worn. Words must not be mouthed.

Improvisation

Performers will be given at least 20 minutes preparation time to develop an improvisation using the title set by the adjudicator on the day. Performers should aim to devise characters and situations within a dramatic structure and should aim to create a sense of reality within the structure of the scene. Skills in voice, diction and movement are also important. Themes and language should be appropriate for a family audience.

Public Speaking

Performers should prepare and deliver a 4 minute speech on the set title. This should be well researched, well structured and the thought process clear to make points stand out to the audience. Visual aids are not needed and the speech must not be read although note cards may be used. There should be a sense of spontaneity in communication and good vocal skills are important as well as appropriate body language.

Kent Festival of Music, Speech and Drama Child Protection Policy

The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech work for amateur festivals everywhere to help create thousands of educational performance opportunities for children and young people each year.

The Federation, and our member Festivals, are committed to ensuring safe environments for children and young people and believe that it is always unacceptable for a child or young person to experience abuse of any kind. We recognise our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all children and young people, by a commitment to recommend best practice which protects them.

This policy applies to our Board of Trustees, paid staff, Adjudicator members, volunteers, students or anyone working on behalf of the Federation and our member Festivals.

We recognise that:

the welfare of the child/young person is paramount.

all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse.

working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

to provide protection for the children and young people who participate in our festivals, including the children of festival members.

to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm.

We will seek to safeguard children and young people by:

valuing them, listening to and respecting them.

adopting child protection guidelines through procedures and safe working practice for staff and volunteers.

recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made.

sharing information about child protection and safe working practice with children, parents, staff and volunteers.

providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately.

The Federation will review this policy each year in November in line with Safe Network guidance or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance. All changes will be communicated to our member Festivals in time for the start of the new Festival year.

Creating Safer Festivals for Everyone

The Federation and its member Festivals use the following policies and procedures to create Safer Festivals for everyone:

1. A single, definitive Child Protection Policy adopted by all Federation Festivals.

2. One or more designated Festival Safeguarding Officers (FSO) appointed for each Federation Festival.

Name: Andrea Dengate

Phone: 01795 890308/07774051810

3. Best practice advice in the form of Safe Working Practice and Festival Child Protection leaflets, with support and training for all Festival staff and volunteers. Including clear reporting procedures for anyone with a concern about a child.

4. Appropriate recruitment and induction procedures for all new Festival staff and volunteers responsible for providing safe environments for everyone attending / performing at a Federation Festival.

5. All Festival stewards wear a Festival badge denoting their name and role. All teachers/parents/guardians /carers are asked to report all incidents of any nature to anyone wearing a badge. All reported incidents will be handled in accordance with the Safe Working Practice and Festival Child Protection best practice advice. In addition we will ensure the availability of a quiet area / room where concerns can be expressed in private.

6. For the duration of a Festival all teachers/parents/guardians/carers are responsible for the continuous care and supervision of their own children/pupils. If they are unable to attend personally, they must delegate their responsibilities to an identified adult and ensure that their children/pupils are aware of the identity and name of the person responsible for their care. This includes supervision throughout all Festival venues, practice and changing areas that may be provided. The Festival cannot take responsibility for any property left unattended.

7. No unauthorised photography, audio or video recording of children and young people is allowed at our Festivals. Where parents/guardians/carers do not wish photos to be taken at all, then the responsible adult attending should ensure that their child is not included in official photos.

8. Some children and vulnerable adults may have specific needs in order to take part. If this is the case we ask the responsible teachers/parents/guardians/carers to contact the Festival prior to arrival. The Festival actively seeks wherever possible to meet these needs, but must know beforehand in order to prepare support or to advise that help cannot be provided on this occasion.

9. The Festival's Child Protection Policy and approach to Creating Safer Festivals for Everyone is published explicitly in our Syllabus, Programme and on our website. By ticking the appropriate box when booking a class all parents / guardians / carers and teachers of entrants under 18 confirm that they give (or have obtained) the necessary consents for the entrants to take part in the Festival. Without consent the entry to the Festival cannot be accepted.

Kent Festival Privacy Notice

The Kent Festival of Music, Speech and Drama: Speech and Drama section takes great care to preserve your privacy and safeguard any personal data you provide to us. This Privacy Notice explains how we will collect and use your personal data.
