General Rules and Regulations

1 The classes are intended for amateurs but professionals may take part in 'open' classes, and in other classes as conductors or accompanists. For the purpose of this Festival, a professional is one whose living is dependent on the teaching or performance of music.

2 Pupils of an adjudicator may not perform in a class examined by that adjudicator.

3 An adjudicator may hear the whole or part of a Test Piece, and may stop a performance when his/her judgment is formed. Our adjudicators expect certain standards to have been reached, and will mark accordingly. The adjudicator's decision in all cases is final.

4 Only officials may communicate with the adjudicators, and any complaints should be made in writing to the Festival Secretary without delay.

5 Mark sheets and certificates may be obtained free at the end of each class, and the marking for certificates is as follows, in accordance with the standardisation system operated by the British and International Federation of Festivals:

Performance:	(under 12 75%, 12 & over 78%)	"A performance showing development of technique and/or communication"
Merit	(All ages 81%)	"A capable performance showing artistic appreciation and/or technical ability"
Commended artistically"	(All ages 84%)	"A convincing performance technically and artistically"
Distinction artistically"	(All ages 87%)	"An excellent performance technically and artistically"
Honours and artistically"	(All ages 90%)	"An exceptional performance, both technically and artistically"

6 A First Place medal will be awarded in classes where there are up to five entries. A Second Place medal will be awarded additionally in classes where there are between six and eight entries. A Third Place medal will be awarded additionally in classes where there are nine or more entries. Certificates of achievement will be awarded to performers who have, in the opinion of the adjudicator, reached a technically competent and musically interesting level of performance. All Place awards are made at the adjudicator's discretion. The adjudicator's decision in all matters relating to the musical result of a class is final.

7 Participants gaining a distinction or honours mark may be invited to perform at the concert on Sunday 2 December. Those selected to perform will be contacted by telephone within 48 hours of their performance at the Festival. 'Concert slips' may be given to participants achieving marks of 87 or over. A concert slip must be filled in and handed to a steward. It does not constitute a firm invitation to appear in the concert.

8 Many classes now serve an additional purpose of offering possible entry into the annual Maidstone Young Musician competition organised by the Maidstone Dawn Patrol Rotary Club. Eligible performers gaining a distinction or honours mark at MMF may qualify to compete in this prestigious event on Saturday 19 January 2019, and they will be contacted by Rotary within seven days of their performance at the Festival.

9 Notice of time and date of classes will be sent to entrants not later than 14 days before the Festival; no information on dates and times will be available before the 2nd week in November. The Festival reserves the right to amalgamate classes if entries do not warrant holding them separately, or to subdivide very large classes. While efforts will be made to comply with requests for time and/or dates of classes, this cannot be guaranteed. Only if a class is withdrawn will entry fees be returned.

10 No entries will be accepted after 8 October and no changes to pieces will be accepted after 22 October. In fairness to those who have chosen their pieces and are sticking to them, any participants not performing the piece stated on their entry forms will be adjudicated but not marked.

11 No form of recording equipment is allowed at any of the classes or at the concert.

12 Copies of performance pieces must be handed to the adjudicators before performing. With the exception of photocopies, which will be destroyed after use, copies of music must be collected at the end of each class.

13 The Music Publishers' Association has made the following concession regarding photocopying, but only from volumes: "When a piece is selected from a volume containing several different pieces and is not published separately, one copy may be made for the use of the adjudicator, provided that the competitor has already purchased his/her volume, and that the copy is kept and destroyed by the administrator of the Festival immediately after the event." Where music is downloaded from the Internet, the performer must also print off and submit the permission statement accompanying the music.

14 Music: The Festival pays a subscription to PRS for Music and, with only a very few exceptions, has to advise them of every piece performed. This means that participants need not seek copyright permission, but it is essential that they show titles and composers on entry forms, as well as instruments in Strings and Wind Sections,

15 Performers are very welcome to bring their own accompanist to the Festival. For those who do not have their own accompanist, Mark Bromley (markbromley.mb @ gmail.com - 07710 171509) is recommended by MMF. His services at the Festival are provided free of charge, but performers availing themselves of this opportunity will be required to pay him for all pre-Festival run-through/rehearsal time. There are no facilities for rehearsal at Invicta Grammar School. Recorded accompaniment (backing tracks) may be used for a limited number of classes where indicated in the category and class notes in the Syllabus.

16 The decision of the Festival Executive Committee is final in all matters arising out of or not specifically provided for in these Conditions.

Piano Syllabus

Adjudicator

James Kirby

As a soloist and chamber musician James performs regularly throughout the UK and Europe. His recital work includes appearances at major concert series in France, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Holland, the Czech Republic, Bermuda, Hong Kong, China, Singapore and Malaysia and in the UK at Wigmore Hall and the Edinburgh and Aldeburgh festivals. Having studied at the Moscow Conservatoire (during which time he reached the semi finals of the International Tchaikovsky Competition) he frequently returns to perform in the former Soviet Union. Highlights have included performances at the Sakharov Festival in Nizhny Novgorod and the Omsk Festival.

James' orchestral performances include concertos with the the English and Scottish Chamber Orchestras, the Moscow, Khazakh and Belorussian Symphony Orchestras, and the Arad and Oradea Philharmonic Orchestras (Romania), and at venues including the Royal Albert Hall, Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, Symphony Hall, Birmingham, the Great Hall of the Moscow Conservatoire and Astana Opera House. He has performed both Brahms Concertos in Russia and Romania.

He has been a member of the Barbican Piano Trio since 1992, performing frequently at Wigmore Hall and in major UK festivals and concert series, and throughout Europe and the USA. Highlights include Carnegie Recital Hall and many cycles of Beethoven's complete Piano Trios including the Master Concert Series at Wigmore Hall. The Trio's repertoire consists of over seventy works and their discography includes trios by Lalo, Tchaikovsky, Taneyev, Rachmaninov and Schnittke.

James has worked with the Vanburgh Quartet, BBC Singers, Lydia Mordkovitch and the mezzo soprano Sarah Connolly and has made several recordings for Chandos. He is a dedicated teacher and enjoys posts at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama in Cardiff, Royal Holloway, University of London and Eton College. He is also an Honorary Professor at the Rachmaninov Institute, Tambov, Russia where he makes regular visits to perform concertos, give recitals and masterclasses and lead chamber music courses.

He has served on the Juries of several international Piano competitions, notably in Romania, Latvia, Russia and Slovenia and gives many masterclasses, both in the UK and overseas, most recently in China and Hong Kong. He is in considerable demand as an adjudicator and is a member of the ABRSM examining panel, which has taken him to Hong Kong, Singapore, China, Indonesia and many European countries.

Classes

Bowed & Plucked Strings Syllabus

Adjudicator

Jessica O'Leary B.Mus; Dip.CSM;ARAM

Jessica is a violinist with a persuasive portfolio career combining performing, teaching, seminar presenting, mentoring string teachers and writing violin tutor books.

She is Principal 2nd violin with OSJ, regularly plays with the Royal Opera House and was a member of the Academy of St. Martin in the Fields.

Passionate about music education, she is Head of Strings at a London Independent School, string consultant and examiner for ABRSM and regularly presents seminars to teachers in the UK and Asia. Her articles are published in international music magazines and her violin tutor books - Best of Grade (1-5), 80 Grade studies (1-5 and 6-8) are published by Faber. Violin, Viola and Cello Basics are part of her most recent beginner string tutor series and are co-authored with Paul Harris. Double-bass Basics will be released in consultation with specialists later in 2021.

She has performed in a variety of venues including Carnegie and Wigmore Halls, Sydney and Royal Opera Houses as well as pop arenas in London and Dubai. She gained a post-graduate scholarship to the Royal Academy of Music with the Amadeus string quartet and is an Associate (ARAM) in recognition of her services to music.

Adjudicator

Maria Jagusz GRNCM.FISM

Maria Jagusz trained as a dancer before taking up a place at the Royal Northern College of Music where she was awarded the Ricordi Prize for Opera. Further scholarships enabled her to continue her studies at the National Opera Studio.

As a singer Maria has worked as soloist for most of the leading opera companies in the U.K and Europe. Her roles include Carmen, Cherubino, Orlofsky, Hansel, Dorabella and Rosina. She has performed with many of the worlds leading singers including Domingo, Carreras, Freni and Dame Felicity Lott. Her last role was Filipevna in Eugene Onegin for Mid Wales Opera just before lockdown. She is a keen recitalist and a regular soloist for choral societies in the U.K.

As a teacher Maria has specialised in training students who are hoping to have professional careers in the world of opera and musical theatre. In order to give them the experience they need to succeed in this cutthroat industry she formed MJ-UK Music and Arts, For MJ-UK she has directed Carmen, Bastien and Bastienne, Dido and Aneas, Les Miserables, West Side Story, Secret Garden, Jesus Christ Superstar, Seussical and most recently Alice In Theareland.As part of their training Maria believes that getting as much performing experience both in concert and on stage is vital for the development of young talent. She arranges many concerts both in the Cotswolds and in Cornwall where young singers can get the chance to perform in a safe welcoming environment.

Maria has worked for the education department for Longborough Festival Opera for the past ten years. She has completed over thirty workshops introducing opera to schoolchildren. For their Young Artist Programme she has directed Little Sweep, Dido and Aneas, La Boheme Sweeney Todd and Les Miserables and most recently Gluck's Orfeo Ed Euridice.This summer she will be directing Hansel and Gretel in a socially distanced production for them.

She travels all over the country leading workshops and master classes for singers. Her work with amateur choirs and singers has led to her directing choral works and operettas for 'Music Festival At Sea '.

She has been awarded honorary chairman of the Silurian Consort for her contribution to music in the Cotswolds.

Paul Harris

Paul Harris is one of the UK's most influential music educationalists. He studied the clarinet at the Royal Academy of Music, where he won the August Manns Prize for outstanding performance in clarinet playing and where he now teaches. He is in great demand as a teacher, composer, and writer (he has written over 600 books); and his inspirational masterclasses and workshops continue to influence thousands of young musicians and teachers all over the world in both the principles and practice of musical performance and education.

Classes

REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL CLASSES: It is acceptable for a performer to play more than one instrument in any class. Own choice of one or two pieces of music composed by Paul Harris. Please refer to Festival Conditions 12, 13 & 14 concerning photocopying and copyright before any entries are submitted.

INSTRUMENTS: There will be an upright piano in the performing room. All other instruments must be brought by the performer(s).

ACCOMPANIMENT (if appropriate): Please see Festival Condition 15. For performers not bringing their own accompanist the Festival recommends Mark Bromley (markbromley.mb@gmail.com - 07710 171509). Recorded accompaniment may be used if the composition calls for it, but please note that performers will need to bring their own recorded accompaniment and portable playing equipment.

NON-COMPETITIVE CLASSES: No marks will be given but each performer will receive a verbal and written adjudication.

NOTE: This is a rare opportunity for performers not only to perform music in the presence of its composer, but also to receive constructive comments and helpful advice from the composer. And there will also be time to meet and talk with John and to ask him to autograph your copies of his music books, should you wish.

Policies

Child Protection Policy

The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech work for amateur festivals everywhere to help create thousands of educational performance opportunities for children and young people each year. The Federation and its member Festivals are committed to ensuring safe environments for children and young people and believe that it is always unacceptable for a child or young person to experience abuse of any kind. We recognise our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all children and young people by a commitment to recommend best practice which protects them. This policy applies to our Board of Trustees, paid staff, Adjudicator members, volunteers, students or anyone working on behalf of the Federation and our member Festivals.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of the child/young person is paramount
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

- to provide protection for the children and young people who participate in our festivals, including the children of festival members
- to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm

We will seek to safeguard children and young people by:

- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- adopting child protection guidelines through procedures and safe working practice for staff and volunteers
- recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- sharing information about child protection and safe working practice with children, parents, staff and volunteers
- sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

The Federation will review this policy each year in November in line with Safe Network guidance or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance. All changes will be communicated to our member Festivals in time for the start of the new Festival year.

Delivered in partnership with SafeNetwork – www.safenetwork.org.uk

Photography

No photography, video or sound recording by the general public is allowed at any time during the Festival.

Press and Commercial Photography may be arranged during the Festival for use in festival publicity. Whenever this occurs the public will be notified. At this time, should anyone not wish their child(ren) to be included, then it will be their responsibility to remove their child(ren).

Vulnerable Adults at Risk Protection Policy

The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech work for amateur festivals everywhere to help create thousands of educational performance opportunities for adults, children and young people each year. The Federation, and our member Festivals, are committed to ensuring safe environments for vulnerable adults at risk and believe that it is always unacceptable for a vulnerable adult at risk to experience abuse of any kind. We recognise our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all vulnerable adults at risk, by a commitment to recommend best practice which protects them. This policy applies to our Board of Trustees, paid staff, Adjudicator members, volunteers, students or anyone working on behalf of the Federation and our member Festivals.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of a vulnerable adult at risk is paramount
- all vulnerable adults at risk, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- working in partnership with vulnerable adults at risk, their relatives, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting their welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

- to provide protection for vulnerable adults at risk who participate in our festivals
 - to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a vulnerable adult may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm
 - to actively promote the empowerment and well-being of vulnerable adults who participate in our festivals
- We will seek to safeguard vulnerable adults at risk by:
- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
 - adopting safe working practices for staff and volunteers
 - recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
 - sharing information appropriately about adults who are at risk, with their consent
 - if consent is refused and there are considered to be serious concerns of abuse for the individual concerned or others, then consent may be over ridden in line with guidance, and only shared appropriately with those who need to know
 - providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

The Federation will review this policy each year in January or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance. All changes will be communicated to our member Festivals in time for the start of the new Festival year.
