General Rules and Regulations

1 The classes are intended for amateurs but professionals may take part in 'open' classes, and in other classes as conductors or accompanists. For the purpose of this Festival, a professional is one whose living is dependent on the teaching or performance of music.

2 Pupils of an adjudicator may not perform in a class examined by that adjudicator.

3 An adjudicator may hear the whole or part of a Test Piece, and may stop a performance when his/her judgment is formed. Our adjudicators expect certain standards to have been reached, and will mark accordingly. The adjudicator's decision in all cases is final.

4 Only officials may communicate with the adjudicators, and any complaints should be made in writing to the Festival Secretary without delay.

5 Mark sheets and certificates may be obtained free at the end of each class, and the marking for certificates is as follows, in accordance with the standardisation system operated by the British and International Federation of Festivals:

DEVELOPING: An inconsistent performance with an overall need for accuracy and/or continuity and artistic development.

PROGRESSING: A generally secure performance in notes and rhythm at a reasonable tempo but as yet with limited attention to detail, tonal qualities and style.

MERIT: Mostly fluent and accurate, with some awareness of tone and style, but requiring a sense of communication and performance.

COMMENDED: Confident, with clear evidence of tonal and stylistic qualities and a development of communication and performance, although there may be moments of imprecision.

HONOURS: Assured and expressive, demonstrating a high level of technical security, imagination and stylistic insight and with a real sense of communication and performance, although small blemishes may be present.

OUTSTANDING: A stimulating, imaginative and persuasive performance, showing stylistic flair, interpretive insight, poise and unobtrusive technical command.

EXCEPTIONAL: An astonishingly impressive performance displaying effortless technical control and superlative individuality in its artistry, and profound musical insight.

6 A First Place medal will be awarded in classes where there are up to five entries. A Second Place medal will be awarded additionally in classes where there are between six and eight entries. A Third Place medal will be awarded additionally in classes where there are nine or more entries. Certificates of achievement will be awarded to performers who have, in the opinion of the adjudicator, reached a technically competent and musically interesting level of performance. All Place awards are made at the adjudicator's discretion. The adjudicator's decision in all matters relating to the musical result of a class is final.

7 Participants gaining a mark of honours or above may be invited to perform at the concert on Sunday 1 December. They will be given a "Concert slip" at the end of their class. The concert slip must be filled in and handed to a member of festival staff on the day of the festival. Those selected to perform will be contacted by telephone within 48 hours of their performance at the Festival. It is not always possible to ask everyone to perform in the concert because of time limitations.

8 Many classes now serve an additional purpose of offering possible entry into the annual Maidstone Young Musician competition organised by the Maidstone Dawn Patrol Rotary Club. Eligible performers gaining a mark of Outstanding or Exceptional at MMF may qualify to compete in this prestigious event on Saturday 21 January 2025, and they will be contacted by Rotary within seven days of their performance at the Festival.

9 Notice of time and date of classes will be sent to entrants not later than 14 days before the Festival; no information on dates and times will be available before the 2nd week in November. The Festival reserves the right to amalgamate classes if entries do not warrant holding them separately, or to subdivide very large classes. While efforts will be made to comply with requests for time and/or dates of classes, this cannot be guaranteed. Only if a class is withdrawn will entry fees be returned.

10 No entries will be accepted after 12 October and no changes to pieces will be accepted after that date. In fairness to those who have chosen their pieces and are sticking to them, any participants not performing the piece stated on their entry forms will be adjudicated but not marked.

11 No form of recording equipment is allowed at any of the classes or at the concert.

12 Copies of performance pieces must be handed to the adjudicators before performing. With the exception of photocopies, which will be destroyed after use, copies of music must be collected at the end of each class.

13 The Music Publishers' Association has made the following concession regarding photocopying, but only from volumes: "When a piece is selected from a volume containing several different pieces and is not published separately, one copy may be made for the use of the adjudicator, provided that the competitor has already purchased his/her volume, and that the copy is kept and destroyed by the administrator of the Festival immediately after the event." Where music is downloaded from the Internet, the performer must also print off and submit the permission statement accompanying the music.

14 Music: The Festival pays a subscription to PRS for Music and, with only a very few exceptions, has to advise them of every piece performed. This means that participants need not seek copyright permission, but it is essential that they show titles and composers on entry forms, as well as instruments in Strings and Wind Sections,

15 Performers are very welcome to bring their own accompanist to the Festival. For those who do not have their own accompanist, Mark Bromley (markbromley.mb @ gmail.com - 07710 171509) is recommended by MMF. His services at the Festival are provided free of charge, but performers availing themselves of this opportunity will be required to pay him for all pre-Festival run-through/rehearsal time. There are no facilities for rehearsal at Invicta Grammar School. Recorded accompaniment (backing tracks) may be used for a limited number of classes where indicated in the category and class notes in the Syllabus.

16 The decision of the Festival Executive Committee is final in all matters arising out of or not specifically provided for in these Conditions.

Bowed & Plucked Strings Syllabus

Adjudicator

Roy Robinson

Prize-winning and joint first study viola player and pianist, Roy trained at the Royal College of Music under the tutorage of Frederick Riddle and Angus Morrison. He holds the complete suite of performance and teaching diplomas on his two main instruments, as well as performance diploma on violin. He won the Leslie Alexander Viola Competition - the highest award available at the RCM - and holds an MA; he also has a background as an organist, conductor and published composer.

Roy has spent most of his career combining teaching (largely as Director of Music in independent schools), performing as a solo and duo recitalist, orchestral player, accompanist and conductor, examining internationally and adjudicating. He has taught academic music to A Level, his main instruments to diploma level and violin to RAM Exhibitioners. He has organised and directed numerous orchestral and singing courses and festivals for children, trained and directed choral societies and has a number of published works for violin and small jazz groups.

He is an extremely busy ABRSM grade, diploma and jazz examiner. He has toured extensively all over the world, including examining in German. He recently consulted for ABRSM selecting and co-selecting the graded viola exam syllabus; he has also presented teacher meetings abroad.

As an adjudicator member of the British and International Federation of Festivals, Roy is in demand at some of the UK's largest music festivals. He not only enjoys adjudicating his specialist areas but also the complete range of classes; he is listed as GEN in the Federation handbook, which means he is qualified to adjudicate all disinclines in music.

Away from music, Roy can often be found driving one of his classic cars, gardening, playing croquet or baking cakes!

Classes

It is acceptable for one player to play more than one instrument in any class. Own choice of music in all classes. Copies of performance pieces must be submitted to the adjudicator immediately prior to performance. Please refer to Festival Conditions 12, 13 & 14 concerning photocopying and copyright before any entries are submitted.

ACCOMPANIMENT: Please see Festival Condition 15. For performers not bringing their own accompanist the Festival recommends Mark Bromley (markbromley.mb@gmail.com - 07710 171509). Recorded accompaniment ('R') may be used only for Classes 406-410, and 448; performers will need to bring their own recorded accompaniment and portable playing equipment.

OWN CHOICE CLASSES: These replace the former 'Age Group Classes' and the groups are identified as:

Beginner: performers who have not reached Grade 1 level;

Elementary: approximately Grades 1-2 level;

Intermediate: approximately Grades 3-4 level;

Higher: approximately Grades 5-6 level;

Advanced: approximately Grades 7-8 level.

GRADE CLASSES: One piece from any current examination syllabus. Performers may enter only one Grade class, and must not have passed the examination for, or play a piece from, a higher grade.

OPEN CLASSES: These may be entered by professionals as well as amateurs. For the purpose of this Festival, a professional is one whose living is dependent on the teaching or performance of music.

NON-COMPETITIVE CLASSES: No marks will be given but each performer will receive a verbal and written adjudication.

*An asterisk against a class indicates that, for that class, it is not a requirement that title and composer are stated on the Entry Form. But this information must be stated, and a copy of the piece must be submitted to the adjudicator, immediately prior to performance. (Classes 401, 406, 411, 432, 437 & 442).

Policies

Child Protection Policy

The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech work for amateur festivals everywhere to help create thousands of educational performance opportunities for children and young people each year. The Federation and its member Festivals are committed to ensuring safe environments for children and young people and believe that it is always unacceptable for a child or young person to experience abuse of any kind. We recognise our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all children and young people by a commitment to recommend best practice which protects them. This policy applies to our Board of Trustees, paid staff, Adjudicator members, volunteers, students or anyone working on behalf of the Federation and our member Festivals.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of the child/young person is paramount
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

- to provide protection for the children and young people who participate in our festivals, including the children of festival members
- to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm

We will seek to safeguard children and young people by:

- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- adopting child protection guidelines through procedures and safe working practice for staff and volunteers
- recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- sharing information about child protection and safe working practice with children, parents, staff and volunteers
- sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

The Federation will review this policy each year in November in line with Safe Network guidance or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance. All changes will be communicated to our member Festivals in time for the start of the new Festival year.

Press and Commercial Photography may be arranged during the Festival for use in festival publicity. Whenever this occurs the public will be notified. At this time, should anyone not wish their child(ren) to be included, then it will be their responsibility to remove their child(ren).

Vulnerable Adults at Risk Protection Policy

The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech work for amateur festivals everywhere to help create thousands of educational performance opportunities for adults, children and young people each year. The Federation, and our member Festivals, are committed to ensuring safe environments for vulnerable adults at risk and believe that it is always unacceptable for a vulnerable adult at risk to experience abuse of any kind. We recognise our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all vulnerable adults at risk, by a commitment to recommend best practice which protects them. This policy applies to our Board of Trustees, paid staff, Adjudicator members, volunteers, students or anyone working on behalf of the Federation and our member Festivals.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of a vulnerable adult at risk is paramount
- all vulnerable adults at risk, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- working in partnership with vulnerable adults at risk, their relatives, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting their welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

- to provide protection for vulnerable adults at risk who participate in our festivals
 - to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a vulnerable adult may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm
 - to actively promote the empowerment and well-being of vulnerable adults who participate in our festivals
- We will seek to safeguard vulnerable adults at risk by:
- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
 - adopting safe working practices for staff and volunteers
 - recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
 - sharing information appropriately about adults who are at risk, with their consent
 - if consent is refused and there are considered to be serious concerns of abuse for the individual concerned or others, then consent may be over ridden in line with guidance, and only shared appropriately with those who need to know
 - providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

The Federation will review this policy each year in January or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance. All changes will be communicated to our member Festivals in time for the start of the new Festival year.
